65, Suffolk Street,

98 Monday morning, April 9, 1849.

Esteemed Friend — A year ago, this month, we lost our dear little babe, Elizabeth Pease. It was our melancholy yet valued privilege to have you with us on the occasion of the burial of her remains. — Again we have been smitten, and another of our children has left us for a higher and purer state of existence. Our beautiful, affectionate, intelligent, large-hearted and noble boy, Charles Follen, died last evening, after a severe illness of a week, in the seventh year of ~~his~~ age. His body we shall commit to the tomb to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and it will give us great pleasure to have you with us, if convenient, and to participate with others in the services of the occasion. We also hope that Mrs. Parker will be able to accompany you.

Mss.A.1.1 Vol.4 p.92c

We have removed from 13 Pine street to 65 Suffolk street, above Dover, directly opposite Hanson street.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison,
Helen E. Garrison.

MS. A. 6.1 v. 4/A. 23 C

Rev. Theodore Parker,

Exeter Place,

Boston.